- 3:00-3:30      Kash for Kyrene: (Christian Becker) Realtor and representative of Fairway Financial, Christine Wenaas-Strack has proposed presenting information on homeownership to interested attendees of the next Community Meeting. If someone decides to use her to buy a home as a result, the PTO could earn a donation through her Kash for Kyrene program. The board has agreed to allow her to attend a future meeting to gauge interest.
- 3:30-3:40      Buffalo Wild Wings: (Christian Becker): Buffalo Wild Wings has not been a terribly successful program. Will continue through spring sports season to see if there's any uptick in interest.
- 3:40-3:50      Harvest Hoedown: (Gina B.) This year's Harvest Hoedown was a wild success, raising even more money than anticipated. Gina B is passing the event onto another volunteer going forward, now that it's an established event.
- 3:50-4:00      Financial Update: (Jessica Workman) The Harvest Hoedown was a success raising far more than anticipated. Teachers have been slow to apply for classroom grants so reminders will be sent out.
- 4:00-4:30      Multi-Cultural Event: (Christian Becker) There is a lot of excitement surrounding the event from students and the community. Volunteers to help with the event are appreciated.
